

Ajitbágh

INTRODUCTION - The Ajitbágh, a small-tented safari camp or a wilderness type of lodge in aristocratic style situated in Shekhawati, India. You will find here noble stay with wild touch. In old days, these types of tents called "Dera". Reminiscent of the dignified travelling tents used by the Rajput rulers of the Rajasthan. Total nine tents in the camp. Staying in tents is romantic as well as camp set in the fresh atmosphere where you can smell the fresh air. Ajitbágh offers a richness of traditional Shekhawati hospitality. It is a privately owned property so with honor you will be just like a personal guest here. Only of its type in Shekhawati. Located in the 17th century village Jhajhar.

ACCOMMODATION - An eight unique, stylish, Shikar tents set in traditional concept of Shekhawati. Pitched on permanent base that is made-up of blue colored stone. Every room has warmer in winters. Attached bathrooms with hot & cold water. Every bathroom has personal hot water geezer.

FIREPLACE - Fireplace of Ajitbágh is the best place to spend some memorable time with your partner or friends in the lap of nature. Where you can enjoy sip a cup of tea in your lavish manner. From here, you can see the wild rabbit's hop into the wild grass. Situated at the upper level of the camp. It is the ideal location for a cool drink during the day as well as evening.

DINE - The Dining tent namely "Noble's Treat", designed on the theme of Rajputi Mehfil .on any festival or any guest's arrival, Rajputs enjoy the Mehfil with delicious food and folk music. A beautiful Lounge tent having an outdoor fireplace where you can enjoy in your lavish manner.

FOOD - Food is available on fixed menu in the camp because of the remote location. The camp serves Rajasthani or Indian food.

AREA - The Ajitbágh spread over 28 bighas of land. (Around 9 acres)

OPENING TIME - The Camp is operational from 1st October to 31st March. It is closed during summer and monsoon months.

ACTIVITIES

- Frescoed Haveli Visit
- Farm walks
- Nature trails
- 17th century village tour
- Children meetings
- Stepwells
- Campfire
- Folk music
- Bengal makers

LOCATION & HOW TO REACH - Located in Jhajhar village just 7 KMS from Nawalgarh and other famous tourism spots are also can be visited easily like Dundlod (14kms), Mukundgarh (20kms), Mandawa (31kms), Mahansar Parasrampura etc. Jhajhar is at the midpoint of Jaipur to Bikaner route.

By Air - Nearest Domestic Airport is Jaipur (137 kms) and International Airport is Delhi (237 kms)

By Rail - Nearest railway station is in Nawalgarh, 7 Kms. regular trains from cities like Delhi, Jaipur connect Nawalgarh making the place easily accessible by railways.

By Road - Jaipur and Bikaner both provide easy access to Nawalgarh by road. An extensive network of National Highways and state highways and several other metalled roads link Nawalgarh with Jaipur, Bikaner, Delhi, Agra, Jaisalmer and many other cities.

Distances from Key Destinations (appx)

Delhi - 270 Kms

Jaipur - 137 Kms

Mandawa - 31 Kms

Nawalgarh - 7 kms

Bikaner - 267 Kms

Jodhpur - 317 Kms

Ajmer - 277 Kms

Udaipur - 547 Kms

Style of Accommodation	Tented
Surroundings	Countryside
Property Type	Private property
Number of Tent Rooms	8
Maximum Guests	16
Children	Yes (by children policy)
Fan in Room	Yes
Room warmers	Yes
Check In/Check Out	03:00 PM/11:00 AM
Fireplace	Yes
Outdoor sittings	Yes
Lawn	yes
Common sitting room	yes
Parking	Yes (Free)
Food	On fixed menu
Catering type	Self-catering
Language	English, Hindi, Shekhawati
Pets	Not allowed

KNOW THE ROUTE? FROM JAIPUR [THROUGH SIKAR ROAD] Jaipur-- Chomu -- Govindgarh -- Ringus -- Ranoli -
- Palsana -- Sikar [By Pass]—Nawalgarh -- Jhajhar (Ajitbágh)

FROM DELHI [THROUGH GURGOAN EXPRESS HIGHWAY] Delhi—Gurgoan--- Rewari---Mahendergarh---Satnali---
Surajgarh---Jhunjhunu--- Nawalgarh--- Jhajhar (Ajitbágh)

CONTACT

E-mail- info@ajitbagh.in
Contact no- +91-9636654006
Website- www.ajitbagh.in

ADDRESS

The Ajitbágh
Village- Jhajhar,
Tehsil- Nawalgarh,
Dist. - Jhunjhunu (Shekhawati),
Rajasthan, India